THE COMPANY

Set on the hill overlooking the valley to the gates of Siena, the Agriturismo Il Villino remains secluded in an oasis of greenery, surrounded by the silence and tranquility of the Chianti hills and unspoiled nature.

The original farm, owned by the Bracco family since 1947, has been carefully restored to give guests the opportunity to fully experience the atmosphere of the countryside and taste its flavors, without neglecting the ancient vocation as producers of olive oil and the excellent Chianti Classico wine.
