
Torrecuso (BN)

Foundation Year: Early 90s
Property: Pulcino Family
Hectares of vineyard: 12HA

Typical and traditional farm of the Campania region, the Torre dei Chiusi estate is located on the verdant and sunny hills of Torrecuso, a small town on the slopes of Mount Taburno in the province of Benevento.

The company, founded in the early 90s, is extended to about 12HA and succeeds, thanks to its geographical position and excellent climatic conditions, to give a wine of great typicality, sublime aromatic finesse, great personality and superior quality.

The passion for wine and love for this territory are the secret of an excellent job that, starting from the cultivation of vines and up to the bottling, is carried out with pride by the Pulcino family.

Ancient and modern, past and future are the foundations of a dream destined to be realized and endure. Step by step, one stone on top of another, the ambition of the Pulcino family has managed to give us the goodness and finesse of their excellent wines.
